

The National Society of the Daughters of the American Revolution (DAR), founded in 1890 and headquartered in Washington, D.C., is a non-profit, non-political, volunteer women's service organization.

We are dedicated to promoting patriotism, preserving American history, and securing America's future through better education. The DAR offers an opportunity to meet people with similar interests, to develop friendships, and to join others who cherish the priceless heritage enjoyed by all while promoting the ideals of patriotism and love of country.

The Arapahoe Chapter meets the first Wednesday of the month in Boulder. Our members enjoy comradery, service projects, field trips, and more throughout the year.
